XM Radio offers me traffic and weather on a continuous repeat, which help me keep up with the changing traffic patterns on a moment to monemt basis. The traffic reportsthat XM Radio provide are more concise and cover the tertiary (local) roads.

I feel that since I'm paying for the service the NAB has no right to prevent XM Radio from giving their sunscriber what they want.

I believe the NAB is more worried about their profits rather than moving ahead with the times.